

Please do not enact a federal "do not call" rule which supercedes state programs, such as Indiana's telephone privacy act. The invasions of privacy are bad enough as it is, without relaxing the barriers for solicitors. Thank you for your consideration.